Planning the Holiday

Eda, Lily, and Tuna talk on the phone about their holiday in Türkiye. Their parents organise a camping holiday for them. They are so happy and excited. They try to plan everything about the holiday.

"I want to go swimming there," says Lily.

"I want to have a picnic by the lake," says Eda.

"I want to go hiking," says Tuna.

"You must take comfortable clothes, Tuna," says Lily.

"Of course!" says Tuna. "I have got trousers, T-shirts and comfortable shoes in my suitcase."

"You always take your cap and sunglasses, don't you?" asks Eda.

"Sure!" answers Tuna. "I'm also taking my umbrella and raincoat now."

"Oh! I think we must take our umbrellas and raincoats, too!" says Eda.

"You're right!" says Lily.

After they plan their outfit and activities, they talk about the people going with them. Lily has a sister and Tuna has two sisters. Eda doesn't have any sisters or brothers.

"Is your sister coming with us, Lily?" asks Tuna.

"Oh, no! And yours?"

"No! They have to join the basketball camp together. You know, they're in the school team," answers Tuna.

"I see! What about your cousin, Eda? Does he want to come with us?" asks Lily.

"I don't think so. He has to study for his exams," answers Eda.

The Journey Begins

It is a sunny day. Eda, Lily, and Tuna are on their way to Van with their families. It is a long but exciting journey. They look forward to reaching the camping area.

"I can't wait to see Lake Van!" says Eda.

"Me too," says Tuna, smiling.

"Do you think we can swim there?" asks Lily.

"I think so."

Eda is wearing a trendy green T-shirt, shorts and comfortable shoes. Lily is wearing a pink T-shirt and a purple skirt. Tuna is wearing a blue T-shirt, shorts, and a cool cap. After a long journey, they arrive at the camping area near the lake. The sun is shining, and the lake looks big and blue, like a sea.

"Look at that view!" says Eda's dad.

"Wow! It's beautiful!" says Lily's mum.

"Amazing!" says children.

They all get out of the cars. They stretch their legs and start carrying their bags, tents, and camping materials to the camping area.

"Let's set up our tents," says Tuna's dad.

"Can you lend your father a hand, Tuna?" asks Tuna's mum.

"Sure!" says Tuna.

The children help their parents. After two hours, everything is ready.

"I'm so hungry," says Tuna.

"Let's have sandwiches and fruit," says Eda's mum.

They all sit down and eat their meals. It has been a tiring day, and everybody goes to their tents and relax.

Swimming Day

The next day starts early. The birds are singing. The lake is so quiet and peaceful.

"Good morning!" says Lily.

"Morning! Did you sleep well?" asks Lily's mum.

"Yes, but my dad snores!" says Lily, laughing.

"Don't make fun of people!" says Lily's mum.

After breakfast, everyone has work to do. Lily is fishing with her dad, Eda is tidying the tent, and Tuna is taking care of a dog.

"Lily is fishing, isn't she?" asks Tuna.

"Yes!" answers Eda.

"There will be fish for dinner, won't there?"

"I hope so!" laughs Eda.

After an hour, they all put on their swimming costumes and go to Lake Van. The children are very excited.

"It's cold!" says Lily.

"But it's fun!" says Tuna.

They swim, splash, and laugh. The sun shines on the water. After an hour, they lie on towels to dry. Lily wears her sunglasses, and Tuna eats an apple.

"We should do this every year!" says Eda.

"Yes, it's so fun!" says Lily.

Suddenly, Eda looks at Lily's hair.

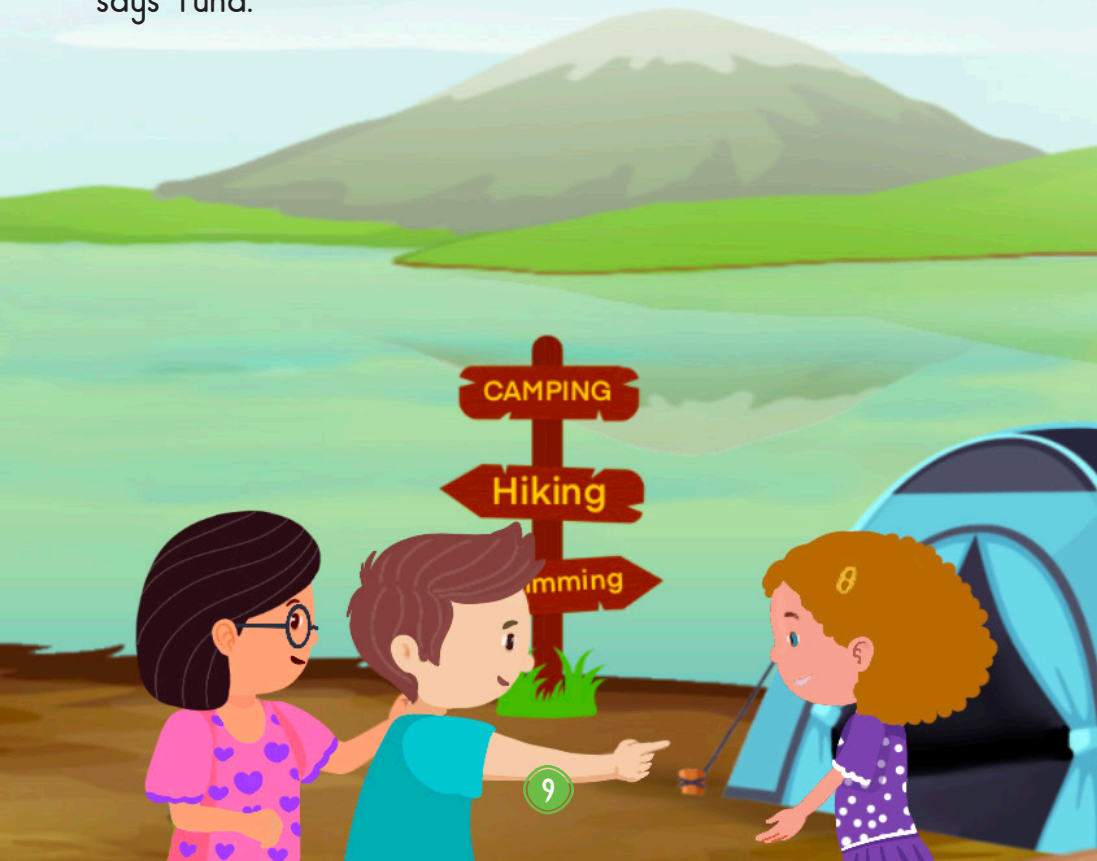

"Oh, look at your hair! It looks lighter! You have got curly fair hair now!" says Eda.

"Really?" says Lily.

"That's so cool!" says Tuna. "The soda in the lake water makes our hair lighter!"

"It's really interesting and funny!" laughs Lily.

"Don't worry about it, Lily. It is a temporary situation," says Tuna.

Exploring the Area

The next morning, Tuna's dad says:

"Let's explore the mountain near the lake."

The families get ready. They wear boots, long trousers, and jackets. Eda carries a bag. There are water bottles and snacks in it. Lily brings her camera.

"Can we take photos there?" asks Lily.

"Of course!" says her mum.

They walk through the trees, take photos, and find small animals. Tuna sees a lizard and follows it.

"Be careful!" says Eda.

"Don't worry, I'm just looking," says Tuna.

"Oh, I must take its photo! Slow down!" says Lily.

Suddenly, Tuna falls down.

"Are you OK?" asks Lily's dad.

Tuna checks his legs, arms and hands.

"I feel fine," says Tuna.

"Phew!" says Lily's dad.

After the walk, they go back to the camp. Their parents prepare chicken and salad for lunch. Then they play board games together after lunch.

In the evening, Eda's dad makes a fire. Tuna's dad plays the guitar, Lily's mum plays the ukulele, and the children sing songs. Lily takes photos with her camera.

"Smile!" she says.

"Cheese!" says everyone.

At night, they sit near the fire, drink hot chocolate, and tell stories one by one.

Shopping Time

The next day, they go to a shopping mall in the city centre.

"Let's go shopping!" says Eda.

The shopping centre is very crowded. There are umbrellas, handbags, and hats. The children walk around and try on different things.

"Try this scarf, Eda!" says Lily.

Eda tries it on.

"It's trendy," says Lily.

"How about this watch?" asks Tuna.

"Cool! I think it suits you," says Eda.

Lily buys a small bag, Eda buys a scarf, and Tuna buys a watch. They go back to the camp and relax. Eda reads a book, Lily takes photos of the lake and mountains, and Tuna listens to music.

Time to Say Goodbye

It's the last day. Everyone wakes up early. The families start packing their clothings.

"I don't want to leave," says Eda.

"Me neither," says Lily.

"But I miss my room and bed," laughs Tuna.

They take one last walk by the lake. The children throw stones into the water.

"I hope we come back here again," says Eda.

"We can even bring our bikes!" adds Lily.

"That's a good idea, cycling is my favourite activity!" says Tuna.

Before they leave, they take one last group photo. Everyone smiles.

"We always get on well as a family!" says Eda's dad.

"Let's pop round to see each other soon," says Tuna.

They say goodbye to Van and get into their cars.

"Bye-bye, Lake Van!" say the children together.
